

Indigenous Research Associate

Za-geh-do-win Information Clearinghouse is looking for an Indigenous Research Associate.

Are you a skilled communicator looking for an opportunity to collaborate with First Communities on an exciting research project?

Za-geh-do-win Information Clearinghouse is in search of research and event planning support.

- Job Category: Research & Planning
- Work Location: Hybrid
- Job Type & Duration: Temporary Part-time 17.5 hours (March 31, 2024)
- Salary Range: $21.00-28.00 per hr.

As an Indigenous Research Associate, you will provide project support, research analysis and event coordination related an on-going dementia project.

As you review and analyze data, external reports and research studies, as well as existing and proposed policies, you will provide recommendations for change and improvements to dementia services for First Nations in Ontario. You'll assist in the organization of a Dementia conference for Indigenous communities in Ontario.

This is an exciting opportunity to assist communities in enhancing their awareness and understanding of dementia. As a collaborative team member who is adaptable, accountable and organized, your understanding of research methodologies will contribute to your success in this role.

Applicants should apply online at the link below and include a covering letter, curriculum vitae and three references with their contact addresses and phone numbers. Any questions about this position should be directed to Niki Naponse, Executive Director @ info@za-geh-do-win.com.

Due date: July 14, 2023 @4:00pm – info@za-geh-do-win.com

All qualified canidates are encouraged to apply, however, Indigenous applicants will be given priority.

